Re: Docket #98N-1038

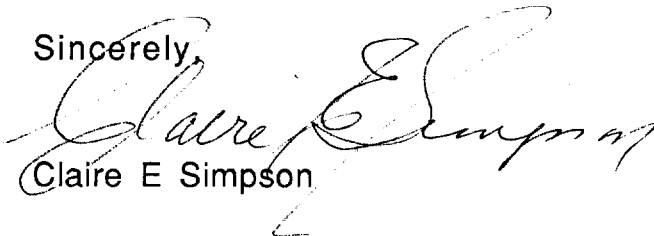

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am strongly opposed to any weakening of food labelling. I feel like an un-important item in a world that is controlled by monopolies, money, corruption.

Drugs are being put on the market without being tested over an appropriate period of time, then many are withdrawn which would never have been put on the market had they been tested over adequate periods of time, cows are being fed growth hormones and there are no labels so informing us. I am sure there are other harmful anti-human, pro-money activities which are kept from us.

It is more than enough. Do not exacerbate things by using smaller labels, and language which would confuse the writers of the Oxford English Dictionary. Tell us what we are eating and drinking and give us a choice instead of slowly poisoning us.

Sincerely,

Claire E Simpson
